

STUDY ABROAD

IN TARRAGONA, SPAIN

Your students can now study at the Rovira i Virgili University for an amazing and unforgettable study abroad experience!

The Rovira i Virgili University is the premier university of Tarragona province in Spain. Tarragona province offers the ideal setting for your Study Abroad program, only an hour away from Barcelona and surrounded by the sandy beaches and blue skies of the Mediterranean. This UNESCO World Heritage Site offers the perfect combination of culture, study and leisure in a safe environment. With a flourishing, modern university, an array of ancient Roman ruins, miles of sandy beaches, and a vibrant cultural and social scene:

Tarragona is one of Spain's best-kept secrets.

The URV, through its Internationalisation Strategic Plan, has identified Study Abroad as one of the main strategies to enhance education and interculturality among professors, students and administrative staff.

ARCHITECTURE: THE MEDITERRANEAN CITY

Mediterranean towns and cities have always been characterized by the coexistence and strong relationship between public and private spaces. The square as a place for meeting others and engaging in regular and occasional activities, the house, the community, the street and the neighbourhood are all elements that at different levels give a sense of place to the town.

The creation of public spaces in a Mediterranean town is a response to civic needs of such importance that they transform the urban structure with complete spontaneity, thus forming rich and complex spaces.

In this course, students will be divided into groups of 5 or 6 in order to share their ideas and to experience working in culturally diverse teams. During the 4 weeks, they will work on urban and architectural projects, attend conferences and carry out field trips.

DATES: June

CONTENT

- Field trips around cities and historic centres
- Lecture series
- Excursions and social program
- Student residence
