

9. Access to registration process

Dear [Nom del candidate],

We are pleased to inform you that you have been admitted onto the [Name of the Doctoral Programme] for the 2021-22 and that you will be able to complete the registration process during the specific period established for this purpose. You can consult the calendar here.

We would like to welcome you to our University and to thank you for choosing the URV to pursue your doctoral studies. We would also like to provide you with some important information regarding the registration process.

Completion of registration process:

You must complete the registration process online.

If you detect any errors in your registration after you have completed it, you have a further five calendar days to rectify them.

Academic information:

If you wish to register as a part-time student, you must choose this option when you register online, provided that you stated this when you pre-registered for the course and that this has been approved by the Coordinator / Academic Committee.

Economic information:

You can find information relating to prices, fees and exemptions and methods and terms of payment.

Registration documentation:

Remember that the deadline for presenting all your registration documentation is the last day of the registration period for your course. You can consult the calendar here.

The URV may check and/or validate your personal information with other administrations or organisations (DNI/NIE, university qualification, large family status, level of disability). You can appeal against the URV checking your personal information with other administrations or organisations.

Administrative procedures:

Click here for all information on the different administrative procedures that you can request as a doctoral student.

URV email address and digital services:

After you have completed the registration process, the URV will generate an account for you so that you have access to an institutional email address and other digital services at the University. The account will be operative 24 hours after you register and you can access it through the URV's Intranet. You can find out how to access your account here.

Once you have access the Intranet, click on "Correu electrònic" to access your URV email account. It is important that you check this account regularly because we will use it to send important information to you during your time at the URV.

URV Card:

After you have registered you can apply for a URV Card. Click here to learn about its benefits and how you can apply for one.

If you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours sincerely,
