

REGISTRATION ANNULMENTS - DOCTORAL DEGREES

- From the day on which they complete the registration period, students may annul their registration within the periods specified in the corresponding administrative period.
- Students who annul their registration will lose all their status as a student and any corresponding rights, such as evaluation.
- Students may recover their registration fees depending on when or for what reason they annul their registration. However, certain fees will not be returned. The fees column shows the fees that have to be paid and those which will not be returned.
