GENERAL CONDICIONS

Article 1: Responsibility

Each of the parties to the present agreement exonerates the other party of all civil responsibility should they or their staff be harmed as a result of executing the present agreement, provided that the harm caused is not the result of grave and deliberately bad professional conduct by the other party or its staff.

Article 2: Rescission of the agreement

Should the beneficiary fail to comply with any of the obligations that he/she agrees to by signing the agreement, and independently of any consequences specified in the applicable legislation, the institution has the legal power to rescind or annul the agreement without having to observe any additional legal formality, provided that the beneficiary does not rectify the situation of non-compliance within one month of receiving the necessary notification by registered post.

Article 3: Data protection

All the personal data included in the agreement must be handled in accordance with Regulation (EC) no. 45/2001 of the European Parliament and Council on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data regarding the protection of physical persons. The data will only be handled for the purposes of executing and monitoring the agreement.

After submitting a written request, the beneficiary may access his/her personal data and modify any incorrect or incomplete information.

Article 4: Nature of the relation between the parties

The parties declare that execution of the study visit does not signify any working relationship or provision of services by the student. The study visit specified in the present agreement is strictly academic in nature.

Given the academic nature of the study visit, if the home university is the URV, the social contributions of the student are covered by the insurance that he/she paid for when registering with the URV.
