

Resolution of March 11, 2022, which awards the grants for the requalification of the Spanish university system for 2021-2023 of the Rovira i Virgili University to the candidates on the reserve list due to resignations of beneficiary candidates.

BACKGROUND:

Royal Decree 289/2021, of April 20, regulated the direct granting of subsidies to public universities for the requalification of the Spanish university system.

Order UNI/551/2021, of May 26, granted the subsidies provided for in Royal Decree 289/2021, of April 20, which regulated the direct granting of subsidies to public universities for the requalification of the Spanish university system.

The Resolution of June 29, 2021 of the rector of the Rovira i Virgili University called the grants for the requalification of the Spanish university system for 2021-2023.

On November 29, 2021, by resolution of the rector, the grants of the Requalification Program of the Spanish university system for 2021-2023 convened by the URV were granted, in its three modalities (Margarita Salas, Maria Zambrano and Requalification of civil servant or contracted university professors).

In accordance with what is indicated in article 13 of the aforementioned call resolution and in accordance with article 63.3 of the Regulations of Law 38/2003, of November 17, if any of the beneficiaries who have been included in the award resolution renounces, it will be agreed, without the need for a new call, to award the subsidy to the applicant or applicants following that one in order of their score. With the resignation of one of the beneficiaries, it has to be released enough credit in order to attend to at least one of the denied requests.

In accordance with the resignations received and in attribution to my competencies,

I RESOLVE:

First. To grant the grants for the requalification of the Spanish university system for 2021-2023 of the Rovira i Virgili University to the candidates on the reserve list in order of their score in each program respectively, modifying, therefore, the total amount to 4.990.059,40 euros distributed economically for each modality as specified in the corresponding annex. The financing will be allocated to the budgetary applications of the URV expenditure budget for the year 2022 indicated below, or the equivalent of subsequent years:

a) Annex 1. Margarita Salas grants for the training of young doctors. 2.617.831,64 euros. Budget application 73.SB.03.32.00-F203.4-130.98.00.

b) Annex 2. Grants for the requalification of official or contracted university teaching staff by promoting the mobility of teaching and research staff. 398,726.94 euros. Budget application 73.SB.03.33.00-F601.1-120.00.

c) Annex 3. María Zambrano grants for attracting international talent. 1.973.500,82 euros. Budget application 73.SB.03.34.00-F203.4-130.99.00.

Second. The awards are financed by the "NextGenerationEU" funds of the European Union through the plan for recovery, transformation and resilience of the Ministry of Universities and are incompatible with any other grant intended for the same purpose from any administration or public, private, national or EU entity or any international organisation and, in general, with any payment received as a wage or salary, if the activity carried out might affect the object of the award or the research aims or occurs at the same time.

The URV must publicise the public nature of the funding for the subsidised activity, expressly referring in employment contracts to the modality, to Ministry of Universities, the European Union, to the "NextGenerationEU" funds and to the Plan for recovery, transformation and resilience.

The beneficiaries must publicise the public nature of the funding of the subsidised activity, expressly referring to the funding announcement, the URV and the funding from the Ministry of Universities and the Plan for recovery, transformation and resilience, by visibly incorporating the respective institutional logo.

In addition, when publishing and disseminating the results that may arise as a result of the activities carried out under the aegis of these grants, the EU regulations governing publicity and dissemination must be complied with, especially when they promote actions and their results and facilitate coherent, effective and proportional information aimed at multiple recipients, including the media and the public.

Third. The conditions of execution are those in the regulations indicated, although specific instructions may be established if necessary.

An administrative appeal can be lodged against this resolution (which terminates the administrative proceedings) with the entity that issued it, within one month, if the resolution is definitive, or if it is not, from the day after the end of the period for the resolution of the awards procedure, in accordance with articles 123 and 124 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October.

Notwithstanding the above, an administrative appeal may be lodged with the Courts of Tarragona within two months if the resolution is definitive, or within six months if it is not, in accordance with articles 9.1.c and 46.1 of Law 29/1998, of 13 July, on the administrative jurisdiction

The Rector
